OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

March 15, 1956

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

Thank you very much for your letter of March 10th.

In view of the pioneering nature of the [redacted] operation within O.D.M., I think it would be fairer to Mr. [redacted] if the present arrangement were extended until January 1, 1957. At that time I feel that the situation could be reviewed and a determination made as to whether he should be transferred to O.D.M.

Although I have no objection to his detail to your Office being continued beyond 9 March 1956, I suggest that you may wish to consider his transfer to your organization, assuming such action were agreeable to all concerned, since you indicate that his services would be desired for an indefinite period of time and you also feel that his performance is worthy of advancement to the grade of GS-16.

Otherwise, I shall arrange to have the question of his promotion to GS-16 submitted to our Supergrade Review Board.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
